EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

- In the event of an emergency, whether a natural or man-made occurrence, UF & UFPD have preparedness plans in place.

- The UF Alert is a notification system that all students are registered for. These notifications will provide them with information needed during an emergency situation or an event which needs attention for safety purposes.

- Notifications are in the form of emails and/or text messages, social media, and speakers inside & outside of UF buildings.

- For more information visit: ufalert.ufl.edu

Big Red Flags

- Emails from Someone You Don’t Know
- Request to Send Cash/pay with gift cards
- Urgency-must do something immediately
- Too Good to Be True-probably is!!
- Asks you to cash a check; keep part of money; wire the remainder to them
- If email asks for personal information, do not use embedded hyperlinks; go to trusted website address.
- Dating Scams: “Stranger” wants/has you to do something inappropriate, then tries to extort money.

Resources

FAKE CHECK SCAMS

Did someone send you a check and ask you to send some money back?

THAT'S A SCAM.

MAYBE:
- You win a prize and are told to send back taxes and fees.
- You get paid as a "secret shopper" and are told to wire back money.
- You sold an item online and the buyer overpays.

IN ALL CASES:
- You get a check.
- They ask you to send back money.

THAT'S A SCAM.

IF IT'S A FAKE CHECK, WHY IS MONEY IN YOUR ACCOUNT?

Banks have to make deposited funds available quickly. It's the law. But the bank may not learn for days that the check was bad. By then, the scammer has your money. And you have to repay the bank. Remember — just because the check has cleared does not mean it is good.

WHAT TO DO:
- Be wary. Talk to someone you trust and contact your bank before you act.
- Never take a check for more than your selling price.
- Selling online? Consider using an escrow or online payment service.
- Never send money back to someone who sent you a check.
Rape Aggression Defense (R.A.D.)

- Course includes lecture, discussion, and self defense techniques
- 12 hours over 3 or 4 days
- Good for women of all ages and abilities
- FREE - Register online at www.police.ufl.edu

“To develop and enhance the options of self defense, so they may become viable considerations to the woman who is attacked.”
S.A.F.E. (Self-Defense Awareness & Familiarization Exchange)

The S.A.F.E. (Self-Defense Awareness and familiarization Exchange) program is taught by nationally certified instructor who is dedicated to help members of our community become more aware of and better familiar with basic self-defense concepts. The course is a 2 hour class geared toward adult and teenage women but is not specifically for women only. The class starts with a short introduction video, then progresses into a 1 1/2 hour physical self-defense familiarization presentation.

Classes are free, but enrollment is limited to ensure the highest level of quality instruction.
EMERGENCY BLUE PHONES

- Located in all parking lot areas and every floor of parking garages in each of the four corners near stairwells/elevators.

- Located on the grounds of all campus residence halls and most academic buildings.

- Automatically connects you to police dispatch who will know your location.

- Phone locations are found by using the online campus map and selecting the “campus safety” feature at www.campusmap.ufl.edu
