The University of Florida Police Department has received information that an unidentified African American male driving a gold or crème colored Chevy Malibu is soliciting for rides around campus. The subject is specifically targeting female students. The subject is reportedly not affiliated with Uber. According to the reporting person, the vehicle has a taillight out and is displaying Uber stickers. While at this time, we do not have any information regarding criminal activity, the UFPD reminds everyone to remain vigilant in their safety practices. Call UFPD at (352) 392-1111 if you have any information about this individual. UFPD recommends reviewing Uber safety tips at www.uber.com/safety.

If you have any information call the University of Florida Police Department immediately at (352) 392-1111.
